Cocal Forecast Official TAILOR-MADE WAIST.

Design for a Close-Fitting Cloth

Bodice. One of the most welcome innovations in One of the most welcome innovations in the season's modes is the introduction of close-fitting tailor-made waists, which are usually shown in cloth. We have had, and still wear, such a variety of fancy and bloused bodiese that the plainer styles will be very acceptable, especially to women who have well-proportioned figures.

The illustration shows a smart waist of hiscait cloth, with tobacco-brown velvet triamnings. The cloth is included in all the perfectly curved seams and darts, which are featherboned.

the perfectly curved seams and darts, which are teatherboned.

The fronts are fitted with two bust darts, and fasten in double-breasted style, the right side crossing over to the left, simulating a pointed lapel. A double row of thy gold buttons, which decorate the lapel, make an effective trimming.

The neck is completed with a high band turned-down veivet collar. The sleeves are close fitting, with upper and under portions. The slight fullness at the shoulders is evenly distributed in small gathers. They are finished with plain velver cuffs.

$2, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 inch bust, The lower edge of the waist is shaped in a point back and front, being quite short on the hips. The closing may be made in the center front, the double-breasted portion on each side underfaced with cloth and trimmed back to form broad revers, which may be trimmed with braid or finished in strictly sailor style, with machine stitching.

ished in strictly sailor style, with machine stitching.

The larger sizes are cut with an extra under-arm gore, which gives grace to the figure and aids greatly in the fitting.

Covert, Venetian, Henrietta, cheviot, zibeline or broadcloth are appropriate for this mode. It may be trimmed with velvet as filiustrated, gold or silver braid, tiny gold or shell buttons, or made severely plain, as preferred.

To make the waist in the medium size will require one and three-fourths yards of forty-four-inch material. The pattern, No. 8134, is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 38, 38, 46, 42 and 44 inch bust measure.
